For your horse's well-being

The benefits. *

- ~ Improvement of the microcirculation and therefore of the cell metabolism
- ~ Scientific proof of the effect of the BEMER Horse-Set on the horse
- ~ Promotes the parasympathetic processes in the organism and thus regeneration and relaxation
- ~ Improves suppleness for optimal training
- ~ Increases performance
- ~ Prevention and increase of infection resistance
- ~ Improved wound healing process
- ~ Increased microcirculation during operations: Reduction of anaesthetic and medication administration, as well as improvement of muscle circulation resulting in a lower risk of myositis (inflammation of the skeletal muscles).

CSI OMMEN GOES BEMER RIDERS TOUR

It is a premiere: for the first time the international BEMER Riders Tour is coming to the CSI Ommen. With riders from 16 nations, the series is experiencing an exciting third leg in the Netherlands. Both the initiators Paul Schockemöhle, Francois and Ullrich Kassermann and the title sponsor BEMER Int. AG are looking forward to the new stage. The BEMER Riders Tour 2022/2023 comprises a total of eight stages and the defending champion is also taking part: Patrick Stühlmeyer from Germany was able to win the 2021 tour and is highly motivated for a repeat.

„This is definitely my biggest success so far,” said a delighted Stühlmeyer at Horses & Dreams near Osnabrück in April 2022. The 31-year-old was fully focussed, collected points again and again throughout the 2021 season and had achieved a comfortable lead before the final leg. The final stage had moved to Horses & Dreams because the regular final at the VR CLASSICS in Neumünster could not take place due to the Corona pandemic.

Now „Stühli”, as the „Rider of the Year” is called by his friends and colleagues, will have to deal with plenty of competition in Ommen. Renowned riders such as the newly crowned Hickstead Derby winner Shane Breen (Ireland), Frank and Hendrik-Jan Schuttert - hosts of the CSI Ommen - will be saddling up in the BEMER Riders Tour and Mathijs van Asten will also be there, as well as the two US-Americans Lucas and

Will Porter, who train with Jeroen Dubbeldam. And the winner of the second leg of the BEMER Riders Tour in Munich will once again be chasing points at the CSI Ommen: David Will from Germany.

The prestigious series, which was launched in 2001, will be contested twice in the Netherlands: Firstly, in the qualifier, an international jumping competition with a jump-off, and secondly, in the rating competition of the BEMER Riders Tour, the Grand Prix of Ommen with two rounds. The 50 best pairs of the qualifier are allowed to compete in this competition.

ABOUT THE COURAGE TO MAKE A SERIES

In the spring of 2001 the announcement was made: After months of planning and discussion, many talks with organisers, the German national federation FN and the international federation FEI, the Riders Tour was set. Since that moment, the series has been running continuously, making headlines and boosting careers. Paul Schockemöhle came up with the idea and strong partners, first and foremost his long-time friend and business partner Ullrich Kassermann. Together they initiated and accompanied all developments and always found partners and sponsors who brought their own input and expectations. For the past few years, title sponsor BEMER Int. AG has added new creativity.

perienicing its 21st season because the initiators always believed that an exciting series would do the sport good – and they were proven right. While in the first years of the series names like Ludger Beerbaum, Meredith Michaels-Beerbaum or Luciana Diniz made their mark on the Riders Tour, they were followed a little later by Carsten-Otto Nagel and Janne Friederike Meyer or most recently Nisse Lüneburg. And it was not only the overall winners who made headlines. Names like Katrin Eckermann, David Will or Patrick Stühlmeyer came into focus. The Tour does not unfold its effect through spectacular individual successes, but through consistently good performances over longer periods.

focus of the BEMER Riders Tour is always and first and foremost on the sport. Title partner BEMER Int. AG has never expressed the slightest doubt about this principle. On the contrary: this partnership is on an equal footing - the Riders Tour initiators and participants with their sporting expertise, the title sponsor with its product expertise.

Partnership: Win-win is Best

BEMER Int. AG obtains experience and valuable knowledge for its BEMER Horse Set and also for the BEMER Human Set from its involvement in sport. Workshops, meetings, countless discussions and on-site exchanges with spectators and athletes have had a significant influence on the development of the sets. BEMER is a specialist in

Today, the BEMER Riders Tour is ex-

In one aspect, everyone agrees: the physical vascular therapy. Studies and tests on a scientifically oriented basis are one building block for the review and development of the product, the individual experiences and feedback of users are another.

„From the very beginning, the commitment was not designed as a one-time thing, but as a long-term partnership,” Bernhard Bock, Head of Marketing at BEMER Int. AG, never tires of emphasising. Only this long-term partnership has made the sum of experience possible.

And this has an effect on the sport. The importance of oxygen supply in the bloodstream can easily be learned in biology lessons. But how important even the tiniest blood vessels are, is something that most equestrian enthusiasts have probably only understood since the beginning of the „BEMER era in the Riders Tour“. The triumphant advance of the „BEMER rug“ is clearly visible - at every show you can find numerous horses relaxing under the horse-set.

Significance for the Sport: New Paths, Attractive Venues

Paul Schockemöhle’s idea of a series, an arc of suspense over several stages and months, has always been and still is relevant to the sport, because: „Without competitive sport, the horse world stagnates. Buying and selling horses, breeding, training and even riding clubs and riding schools are all connected.“

Business partners and friends: Ullrich Kasselmann and Paul Schockemöhle | Foto: S. Fuchs

The past years have certainly made the connections clear. It was therefore all the more important that the BEMER Riders Tour was launched in 2021, even though not every single stage had been planned down to the last detail and the implementation was absolutely certain.

You have to react to challenges and that is exactly what the „makers of possibility“ have done and are doing again: a „breath of fresh air“ is blowing through the BEMER Riders Tour 2022 with new stages in Europe.

In addition to Germany, the BEMER Riders Tour will also stop in the Netherlands, Belgium and Austria in the 2022 season, thus breaking new ground. The series started in Hagen a.T.W. at Horses & Dreams meets Canada, followed by the 2nd stage at the Pferd International Munich and then this weekend it goes to Ommen in the Netherlands and then on to the Fest der Pferde in Donaueschingen-Immenhöfe. The 5th leg leads to the Turnier der Sieger in Münster, which is back in the sporting calendar after a Corona break. Lier, Belgium, will host the sixth leg, followed by Wiener Neustadt and the final leg in Neumünster at the VR CLASSICS.

In addition, there is an expansion with the BEMER Young Riders Tour that is aimed at the U21 age group and should bring many new faces to the 2023 Tour season. Young riders who compete successfully this year will be able to give the „sporting establishment“ a run for their money in the BEMER Riders Tour 2023. What does that mean? The future has already begun...

THE IDEA OF THE BEMER RIDERS TOUR

The hero of the BEMER Riders Tour 2021/22 was Patrick Stülmeyer. The 31-year-old show jumper, who was born in Osnabrück, made the previous season „his“. Over five events, „Stühli“ collected points and kept his cool and his nerves. Consistency - that is the rule - is the most important quality in the BEMER Riders Tour.

This once again underlined the essential concept of tour initiator Paul Schockemöhle. Two ideas motivated Schockemöhle and his congenial partner Ullrich Kassermann when they invented the Riders Tour more than 20 years ago: To develop an element of excitement and bring new attention to the sport of show jumping. And to reward the „most competent“ riders of the season. It is precisely this quality, continuity and focus that distinguishes the truly great riders.

WORKS: THE RULES OF THE BEMER RIDERS TOUR

What works well in practice, is here to stay. This is also the principle behind the rules of the BEMER Riders Tour. Whoever wins a special stage earns 20 points, whoever comes second 17 points, etc. up to 1 point for 15th place. Collecting the most points is what it's all about. At the end, the four best results of each participant are taken into account. Whoever has the most points is „Rider of the Year“.

Who is eligible to compete in the BEMER Riders Tour?

The three best riders of the previous year can compete at the first tour stop, then always the top three of the current ranking. In addition, the top 25 riders of the current World Ranking List Jumping are pre-qualified for the competition. Then there are riders who have been invited or nominated by their federations for the BEMER Riders Tour events.

The BEMER Riders Tour Competitions

At each stage, a qualification will be ridden before the ranking competition. The 50 best pairs of this qualification, including the pre-qualified riders, will then compete in the special stage and only there will the ranking points be awarded. While the qualification test is an international jumping competition with a jump-off, the special stage is an international jumping competition with two rounds. In any case, all clear rounds of the first round, but at least the best quarter of the first round, will go into the second round. The rule for the second round is: Everyone starts from zero again.

Tried and tested rules

These regulations have been a pillar of the sporting appeal of the BEMER Riders Tour for more than 20 years. Familiar regulations are used for this purpose. If, for example, two riders are both ranked 50th in the qualification, then both are allowed to start in the competition. If there is actually a tie for first or second place in the overall ranking after the final leg, then the higher number of first, second, third etc. places will decide on the overall ranking. This tried and tested mode will also apply in the 21st season of the BEMER Riders Tour.

BEMER Riders Tour points system

1. place	20 points
2. place	17 points
3. place	15 points
4. place	13 points
5. place	11 points
6. place	10 points
7. place	9 points
8. place	8 points
9. place	7 points
10. place	6 points
11. place	5 points
12. place	4 points
13. place	3 points
14. place	2 points
15. place	1 points

If more than one rider occupies the same place, they will receive the same number of points, e.g. two riders in 3rd place: 15 points each. The next placed rider would then be 5th and get 11th points.

Overall winner of the BEMER Riders Tour: „Rider of the Year“

Only the rider's four best results are counted towards the final classification. The top three riders in the final ranking each receive a LAND ROVER car.

In order for a rider to be considered for the final classification, a start at the final stage, the „VR CLASSICS“ Neumünster 2023, is mandatory.

The rider who has collected the most points in the BEMER Riders Tour is „Rider of the Year“. In the event of a points tie, the most victories or second places, etc. will decide. Should there still be a tie in points, the better result in the ranking test of the final stage will be the deciding factor.

FINAL 2021/22

@Horses & Dreams meets Canada | Hof Kasselmann | Hagen a.T.W.

PATRICK STÜHLMAYER IS RIDER OF THE YEAR 2021/2022

He has already ridden Nations Cups and won Grand Prix, but „I would call this the biggest success of my career,” says Patrick Stühlmeier. Almost exactly 365 days after he collected his first points in the BEMER Riders Tour at Horses & Dreams, the 31-year-old show jumper from Steinfeld/Mühlen finished the series as the overall winner for the first time and was celebrated extensively with a champagne shower.

Thanks to the boss

„I scored points with four different horses over the course of the series and all of them belong to my boss, Paul Schockemöhle. I just want to say thank you for providing me with such good mounts,” remarked Stühlmeier, who grew up in the Osnabrück region, with a smile. The boss is also the initiator and partner of the Riders Tour, which celebrated its 20th final since 2021. His reward: a brand new Land Rover for the overall winner of the BEMER Riders Tour. Runners-up Dominique Hendrickx and Angelique Rösen were also very excited as they drove around the stadium in Hagen in their new vehicles of the luxury brand.

STAGE TWO IN MUNICH

The 34-year-old David Will from Dagobertshausen won the second leg of the BEMER Riders Tour at the Pferd International in Munich. Will stayed clear with the 13-year-old Hanoverian Primus vom Neumühler Hof in 56.93 seconds in the Grand Prix of Bavaria presented by Hirmer Hospitality, Prize of the Bavarian State Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Forestry. With this result, the European team vice champion of 2021 outdistanced his competitors by a long way and moved up to first place in the BEMER Riders Tour ranking together with Janne Friederike Meyer-Zimmermann (Pinneberg).

The decision to go south again with the BEMER Riders Tour after 2021 was welcomed by Bernhard Bock (Head of Marketing BEMER Int. AG): „We had talked to Simone and Hansi Blum about it after the event took place last year - albeit under Corona conditions. It's really impressive to see it in full bloom here now." Bavaria's equestrian fans literally streamed onto the grounds in Munich-Riem - 75,000 visitors were reported by the organisers.

NEXT TO COME: FEST DER PFERDE

Festival of the Horses" at the RZ Frese-Immenhöfe

The "Fest der Pferde" has been celebrated at the RZ Frese in Donaueschingen Immenhöfe for 26 years and the BEMER Riders Tour will travel there for the second time this year. The CSI will take place from 28 - 31 July 2022 and is the fourth stage on the way to winning the BEMER Riders Tour.

From Thursday to Sunday, everything will revolve show jumping on the grounds of the equestrian centre. The qualifying competition for the BEMER Riders Tour is the Championat der Stadt Donaueschingen, an international jumping competition with jump-off. The 50 best pairs from this competition will then compete in the ranking event on Sunday, the Grand Prix of the Immenhöfe, which is a jumping competition with two rounds. Tour experience teaches us that it is getting more and more exciting, because after two or three legs, some of the protagonists have already pulled away in the ranking, but they are not uncatchable. So it should be very exciting in Donaueschingen! By the way, everything will also be live at www.clipmyhorse.tv!

TITLE SPONSOR BEMER INT. AG

In 2016, the BEMER Int. AG was the main sponsor of the Riders Tour for the first time. Three years later, in 2019 they became the title sponsor and continued until today.

The company specialises in physical vascular therapy. Improving microcirculation in tiny blood vessels - that is the company's core competence. And what has already been successfully applied in human medicine has also become a success in the veterinary field. With the BEMER Horse Set, BEMER Int. AG offers an effective therapy for improving microcirculation - with many positive effects on the horse. In cooperation with the greats of equestrian sport, it has been constantly further developed and contains numerous new features and clever details.

A rider can only be truly successful on a horse that is happy, healthy, recovered and relaxed. The BEMER Horse Set can make a valuable contribution to this. It improves microcirculation, i.e. the circulation of the smallest blood vessels, promotes metabolism and cell activity and thus recovery and convalescence processes.

Scientific studies also show an optimisation of suppleness and regeneration. In close cooperation with equestrian sports authorities, equine physicians and amateur athletes, BEMER has continuously developed the Horse Set further - among others with the Department of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Milan, the HCCG, Dr. med. vet. Hermann Josef Genn, Hof Kasselmann or Paul Schockemöhle Marketing. Countless findings from their work flowed and flow into the development of the set. The result: The best BEMER Horse Set ever.
